

CHANDOS PUBLISHING

The Information Literacy Cookbook:

Ingredients, recipes and tips for success

Edited by Jane Secker, Debbi Boden and Gwyneth Price

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introducing the chefs: about the authors	ix
1. Appetisers and aperitifs: getting started with the information literacy cookbook	1
Jane Secker, Debbi Boden and Gwyneth Price
2. Feeding the masses: digital citizenship and the public library	11
Rónán O'Beirne
3. Healthy mind, healthy body: digital literacy in the NHS	27
Di Millen and Helen Roberts
4. Information discovery stir-fry: information literacy in the commercial sector	45
Angela Donnelly and Carey Craddock, Unilever R&amp;D, UK
5. Alone in the kitchen: when you're the only one providing the service	71
Sarah Hinton, Manage5Nines Ltd.
6. Educating the palate of pupils and teachers: recipes for success in school libraries	91
Rebecca Jones
7. Variety is the spice of life, or choosing your toppings with care: information literacy challenges in the further education sector	111
Gwyneth Price and Jane Del-Pizzo
8. Information literacy beef bourguignon (also known as information skills stew or i-skills casserole): the higher education sector	123
Jane Secker, Debbi Boden and Gwyneth Price

9. Conclusion: coffee, cheese, biscuits and petit fours	153
Jane Secker, Debbi Boden and Gwyneth Price

Index	159
-------	-----