

Edited by

BRADFORD LEE EDEN

CONTENT
MANAGEMENT
SYSTEMS
IN LIBRARIES

CASE STUDIES

Contents

Introduction	v
1 Luwak: A Content Management Solution Matt Benzing	1
2 LibData to LibCMS: One Library's Evolutionary Pathway to a Content Management System Paul F. Bramscher and John T. Butler	9
3 Issues and Opportunities in E-journal CMSs Ioannis Papadakis and Christos Douligeris	27
4 Beyond HTML: Developing and Reimagining Library Web Guides in a Content Management System Doug Goans, Guy Leach, and Teri M. Vogel	43
5 CMS/CMS: Content Management System/ Change Management Strategies Susan Goodwin, Nancy Burford, Martha Bedard, Esther Carrigan, and Gale C. Hannigan	71
6 Untangling a Tangled Web: A Case Study in Choosing and Implementing a CMS Terry L. Huttenlock, Jeff W. Beaird, and Ronald W. Fordham	79
7 Building a Local CMS at Kent State Rick Wiggins, Jeph Remley, and Tom Klingler	89

8	Migrating a Library's Website to a Commercial CMS within a Campuswide Implementation Tom Kmetz and Ray Bailey	113
9	Building a Collection Development CMS on a Shoestring Regina Beach and Miqueas Diál	129
10	An RDF-based Digital Library System Yan Han	141
11	Evolving an In-house System to Integrate the Management of Digital Collections Marilyn Lutz and Curtis Meadow	149
12	Winning the Peace: An Approach to Consensus Building When Implementing a Content Management System Edward Iglesias	171
13	Enterprise Content Management System (CMS) for a University Photographic Museum: A Case Study of Selecting a CMS for Integrated Collections Yu Su	179
14	Using the Library Intranet to Manage Web Content Sarah Robbins, Debra Engel, and James Bierman	193
	Index	207
	About the Editor and Contributors	215