

The LEGAL ADVISOR
for LIBRARIANS,
EDUCATORS, &
INFORMATION
PROFESSIONALS

PROFESSIONAL
LIABILITY
ISSUES
FOR
LIBRARIANS
AND
INFORMATION
PROFESSIONALS

Paul D. Healey

► Contents

Series Editor's Foreword	xiii
Tomas A. Lipinski
Preface	xvii
Acknowledgments	xix

► PART I LIABILITY AND INFORMATION WORK

Chapter One. Introduction: Liability as an Issue in the Information Professions	3
1. Essential Background Explanations	3
1.1 Why This Book?	3
1.2 Playing with Legal Theory	5
1.3 Law Is Dependent on Time and Place	6
1.4 Statutes, Regulations, and Ordinances	6
1.5 Case Law and Common Law	7
1.6 A Note on Terminology	7
2. What Is Liability?	8
3. What Is Professional Liability?	8
4. The Effect of Liability Issues on Being an Information Professional	9
5. The Story So Far: The Present State of Liability for Information Professionals	10
5.1 Searching for Cases	11
5.2 The Literature	13
6. The Information Professions	16
6.1 Who We Are	16
6.2 Information Professionals and Their Work	18
7. Important Points about This Book	22
8. How to Use This Book	23
Endnotes	24
Chapter Two. Understanding Liability	27
In This Chapter	27
1. What Is Law?	27
1.1 Liability vs. Guilt and Civil vs. Criminal	28
1.2 The Role of Federal and State Law	29
2. Liability to Society	30
2.1 Criminal, Civil, and Regulatory Liability	30

3. Liability to Others	31
3.1 Contract: Undertaken Duties	31
3.2 Tort: Relational or Imposed Duties	32
4. Pursuit of Remedies for Liability	32
4.1 Pursuit of Remedies by the Victim	32
4.2 Pursuit of Remedies by the State	33
4.3 Pursuit of Remedies by Employers and Institutions	34
5. Institutional Liability	34
5.1 Claims Against the Institution but Not the Professional	34
5.2 Claims Against Both the Institution and the Professional	35
6. Tort Immunity	38
6.1 Governmental Immunity	38
6.2 Statutory Immunity	40
7. Questions and Answers	41
8. Important Points to Remember	42
Endnotes	42
Chapter Three. Torts, Contracts, and Other Legal Issues	45
In This Chapter	45
1. Torts	45
1.1 Intentional Misconduct	46
1.2 Strict Liability	46
2. Negligence	47
2.1 Negligence Elements	48
2.2 Duty of Care	48
2.3 Proximate Cause	52
2.4 Harm	53
2.5 Malpractice	55
2.6 Negligent Misrepresentation	56
3. Materials Torts: Defamation	57
4. Tort Liability for Commercial Publishers	59
5. Defenses to Tort Claims	60
5.1 Contributory Negligence	60
5.2 Assumption of Risk	61
5.3 Other Responses to a Tort Claim	61
6. The Rights of Privacy and Publicity	62
6.1 Right of Privacy	62
6.2 Right of Publicity	64
7. Contracts	65
7.1 What Is a Contract?	65
7.2 Key Contract Concepts	65

8. Other Legal Issues	67
8.1 Confidentiality	67
8.2 Fees	67
9. Important Points to Remember	68
Endnotes	68
Chapter Four. Information Professionals and Liability	73
In This Chapter	73
1. Standards and Duties of Care for the Information Professions	74
1.1 What Standards of Care Arise from the Activities of the Information Professions?	74
1.2 Is There a Duty of Care for the Information Professions?	77
1.3 The Sain Case	79
2. The Importance of “Profession” in Liability Issues	81
2.1 What Is a Profession?	82
2.2 The Legal View of Professions	84
2.3 Examining the Characteristics of a Profession	85
2.4 Do the Information Professions Fit the Definition of “Profession”?	87
3. A Possible Solution: The Concepts of Fiduciary and Consultant	90
3.1 What Is a Fiduciary?	90
3.2 What Is a Consultant?	91
3.3 Are Information Professionals Fiduciaries or Consultants?	91
4. Employment Status and Personal Liability	92
4.1 Employee Liability	92
4.2 Self-employment and Liability	94
5. User Status and Liability	94
5.1 Employees	95
5.2 Students	95
5.3 Members of the Public	97
5.4 Customers	97
6. Questions and Answers	98
7. Important Points to Remember	99
Endnotes	99
Chapter Five. Potential Sources of Liability Claims for Information Professionals	105
In This Chapter	105
1. Harm in the Information Professions	106
1.1 When Is Information “Wrong”?	106
1.2 When Is There “Error”?	107
1.3 The Anatomy of “Error” in Practice	108

2. Forms of Error	110
2.1 Resource Errors	110
2.2 Service Errors	114
2.3 User Errors	124
3. Important Points to Remember	124
Endnotes	124

▶ PART II
LIABILITY ISSUES FOR SPECIFIC SEGMENTS
OF THE LIS PROFESSIONS

Chapter Six. Specific Professional Liability Issues for Librarians	129
In This Chapter	129
1. Case Study: The Building Project	129
1.1 Issue: Governmental Immunity	130
1.2 Issue: Statutory Immunity	131
1.3 Issue: Employment Status	132
1.4 Issue: User Status	132
1.5 Issue: Malpractice and Duty of Care	133
1.6 Issue: Defenses	135
2. Case Study: The Perils of Poisonous Mushrooms	135
2.1 Issue: User Status	136
2.2 Issue: Failure to Act on Publisher's Warning	137
2.3 Issue: Expertise and Guarantee	138
3. Case Study: Evading Evolution	138
3.1 Issues for School Librarians	139
4. Case Study: Due Diligence	140
4.1 Issues	141
5. Avoiding and Minimizing Liability	141
5.1 Consulting vs. Fiduciary	142
5.2 Guarantees	142
5.3 Promoting Expertise	142
5.4 Reasonable Reliance	144
5.5 Collections Decisions and Accuracy of Materials	145
Endnotes	145
Chapter Seven. Liability Issues for Law and Medical Librarians	147
In This Chapter	147
1. Case Study: Legal Reference Questions in the Library	147
2. Law and Medical Reference Questions: Who Is Asking, and Why?	149
2.1 Benign Users and Uses of Legal and Medical Materials	149

2.2 Services to Licensed Professionals	150
2.3 Who Is Asking Legal Questions?	152
2.4 Pro Se: A Special Category of Law Library Users	152
3. Forms of Liability Arising from Assisting Lay Users	159
3.1 Unauthorized Practice of a Profession	159
3.2 Subject Expertise and Liability for Librarians	161
4. Liability Issues for Medical and Health Librarianship	163
5. Practice Suggestions for Law and Medical Librarianship	164
5.1 Basic Concepts to Guide Your Approach to Medical and Legal Questions	164
5.2 Tips and Tools for Serving Library Users with Legal or Medical Information Needs	167
Endnotes	168
Chapter Eight. Specific Professional Liability Issues for Information Brokers	173
In This Chapter	173
1. Case Study: Setting Up Shop	173
2. Legal Issues Overview	174
2.1 Reasonable Reliance and Duty of Care	175
2.2 Contract Issues	176
2.3 Self-employment	176
2.4 Negligent Misrepresentation	177
3. Minimizing Liability	178
3.1 Reasonable Reliance and Duty of Care	178
3.2 Contracts and Agreements	179
4. Other Approaches to Limiting Liability	181
4.1 Expertise and Collaboration	181
4.2 Communication	181
4.3 Records	182
4.4 Ethical Behavior	183
5. Conclusions	184
Endnotes	184
Chapter Nine. Specific Professional Liability Issues for Archivists and Curators	185
In This Chapter	185
1. Overview of Legal Issues	185
2. Case Study: Looking a Gift Horse in the Mouth	186
3. Possibilities for Professional Liability	188
3.1 Employment Status and Potential Liability	188

4. Potential Areas of Liability	189
4.1 Acquisitions	189
4.2 Loans	192
4.3 Deaccessions	192
5. Potential Liability for Violating the Rights of Others	193
5.1 Right of Privacy	193
5.2 Right of Publicity	195
6. Analysis of Potential Professional Liability	196
Endnotes	197

▶ PART III
AVOIDING LIABILITY CLAIMS: PROACTIVE APPROACHES AND TOOLS

Chapter Ten. Proactive Approaches to Liability Issues	201
In This Chapter	201
1. The Hidden Costs of Liability Fears	201
2. Controlling Liability: General Ideas	202
2.1 Avoiding a Duty of Care	202
2.2 Avoiding Reasonable Reliance	202
2.3 Promoting Competence	203
2.4 Controlling Resource Errors	204
2.5 Avoiding Service Errors	204
3. Suggestions	206
3.1 Librarians	206
3.2 Law and Medicine	206
3.3 Information Brokers	207
3.4 Archivists and Curators	207
4. Conclusion	208
Chapter Eleven. Training Suggestions	209
In This Chapter	209
1. Librarians	209
2. Law and Medicine	210
3. Information Brokers	210
4. Archivists and Curators	210
Chapter Twelve. Policy Suggestions	211
In This Chapter	211
1. Librarians	211
2. Law and Medicine	212

3. Information Brokers	212
3.1 The Agreement Letter	213
4. Archivists and Curators	214
Chapter Thirteen. Liability Audits	215
In This Chapter	215
1. Librarians	215
2. Law and Medicine	216
3. Information Brokers	218
4. Archivists and Curators	219
Glossary	221
Index: Cases	225
Index: Subject	226
About the Author	236