

the public library

DAVID MCMENEMY

Contents

Acknowledgements	xi
-------------------------------	-----------

Preface	xiii
----------------------	-------------

Part 1

The public library: history and modern context	1
---	----------

1 Public libraries: the modern context	3
---	----------

Introduction	3
The 21st-century context	4
Government publications	6
The Coates Report	11
Research on public libraries	13
Service challenges	14
Conclusion	17
References	18

2 Historical development of public libraries in the UK	19
---	-----------

Introduction	19
The early antecedents	19
The public library movement	24
Moving to the Act	26
Early public library development	27
Philanthropy and growth	29
The McColvin Report and post-war developments	30
The modern statutory context	32
Conclusion	34
References	35

Part 2

Service themes of the modern public library	37
--	-----------

3 Equity of access	39
---------------------------------	-----------

Introduction	39
Core values	40

Censorship	43
Enabling equitable access to materials	47
Social inclusion	49
Public library users	52
Reaching excluded users	54
Impact of library closures and reduced opening hours	57
Conclusion	58
References	59
4 Cultural and leisure roles	61
Introduction	61
Culture or leisure?	62
Borrowing of books in practice	64
Promotion of literacy and reading	67
Children and young people's services	70
Music, films and other media	73
Conclusion	73
References	75
5 Information, advice and informed citizenship ...	77
Introduction	77
Information types	78
Ethics of information – any question answered?	79
Reference services	80
Virtual reference services	83
Guidelines for reference and information services	84
Informed citizenship	85
Community information	87
Business information	87
Heritage and digitization services	88
Genealogy services	89
Information after civil disasters	90
Web services	90
Conclusion	91
References	92
6 Lifelong learning	95
Introduction	95
What is lifelong learning?	96
The public library and learning	96
UK policy background	99
Literacy and ICT literacy	100
Public library initiatives	103
Conclusion	105
References	105

Part 3Issues in management and service development 107*7 The impact of information and communications technology..... 109

Introduction	109
Understanding the use of technology in libraries	109
The People's Network	113
Public access computing	115
Technology-enhanced services	119
Conclusion	121
References	122

8 Management, governance and budgeting issues..... 125

Introduction	125
Local authorities	126
Local government reorganization	128
Budgets	131
Cultural change in management and service delivery	138
Leadership and management trends	140
Emergence of managerialism	142
Conclusion	142
References	143

9 Performance measurement and evaluation ... 145

Introduction	145
Performance measurement	146
Modes of measurement	147
Measurement of public library services	148
Performance indicators in UK libraries	150
Measurement of Scottish public libraries	154
Measuring economic value	155
The consequences of performance measurement	157
Conclusion	159
References	160

10 Professional and staffing issues..... 163

Introduction	163
The local authority staffing structure	163
Professional issues	164
Ethical issues	170
Professional vs paraprofessional	172
Nature of working	174
Hierarchy of needs	176
Conclusion	178
References	179

1 1 Marketing, branding and buildings.....	181
Introduction	181
Marketing public libraries	181
Attracting users	184
Mission statements	186
Branding and rebranding	188
Challenges in infrastructure and location	190
Conclusion	194
References	195
1 2 Conclusion: the public library of tomorrow....	197
Introduction	197
Public libraries: an outdated concept?	198
Revisiting service themes	198
Predictions of demise	200
Public libraries: lessons from retail?	201
The equity and excellence debate	202
Public libraries and ICTs	203
Education of public librarians	203
The public library and librarian of the future	204
Conclusion	205
References	206
Selected reading.....	207
Index.....	211