

Going the Distance

LIBRARY INSTRUCTION FOR REMOTE LEARNERS
EDITED BY SUSAN J CLAYTON

► Contents

List of Figures	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xi

► PART I
DESIGNING DISTANCE INSTRUCTION

1 Using Models and Methods to Design Library Instruction	3
2 Learning and Mastering the Tools of the Trade	19
3 Scheduling and Visiting Off-Campus Classes	27
4 Designing and Implementing Web-based Learning Modules: A Case Study from the Health Sciences	35
5 Teaching an Online Library Instruction Course	49
6 Understanding Copyright and Distance Education	59
7 Preventing Plagiarism and Library Anxiety	73

► PART II
DELIVERING DISTANCE INSTRUCTION

8 Utilizing Technology	83
9 Developing Distance Learning Web Support	93
10 Designing Online Information Literacy Tutorials	107
11 Comparing an Online and a CD-ROM Library Tutorial	115
12 Creating and Using an Information Literacy Toolkit for Faculty	125
13 Using Virtual Classroom Software for Library Instruction	139

► PART III
COLLABORATING FOR DISTANCE INSTRUCTION

14 Collaborating with Faculty and Instructional Technology Staff	153
15 Marketing Library Instruction to Off-Campus Faculty and Students	159

► PART IV
ASSESSING DISTANCE INSTRUCTION

16 Developing and Assessing an Online Library Instruction Course	171
17 Reviewing Assessment Tools for Library Instruction	185
18 Recognizing the Importance of Assessment in Library Instruction	195

Index	213
About the Editor	233
About the Contributors	235